School Plan & Budget for the 2018–19 School Year

School Mission Statement
 At Northgate, our community collaborates to nurture the academic and social emotional growth of each and every student so that all students can realize their dreams and potential.

School Goals
 Our first goal is for all students and families to feel welcome and loved at Northgate Elementary. In order to support every student to attain academic proficiency we build on student, family and community strengths to boost student achievement. To this end, we offer targeted programs to excelerate progress for students who need additional supports and to provide enrichments for those who demonstrate mastery.

School Description & Plan to Achieve Goals
 Northgate is a vibrant and richly diverse community comprised of students, staff and families from all over the world from many different cultures, speaking over 30 different languages. At Northgate our goal is to ensure that EVERY student is making growth both academically and social emotionally. In service of this goal, our building is constantly bustling with activity in support of our students and families.

- Teachers provide quality instruction aligned to the Common Core State Standards
- Our robust roster of support staff are dedicated to providing timely and specific interventions for students who need ELL services, academic supports and/or behavioral supports
- Our school counselor is here everyday so that social emotional supports are consistently available and support can be provided in a timely manner
- Teachers and support staff are constantly monitoring the progress of students so that we can meet their needs in a timely manner and accelerate their growth
- Professional development for teachers and staff is aligned with school goals and objectives
- After school partners, Boys and Girls Club and Seattle Parks and Recreation provide additional academic supports and enrichment opportunities. You can find us here early in the morning to late in the evening providing a variety of opportunities for our students and families. We are a proud community of learners.
